

Food:

There are two options for you to choose from.

1. Self-catering
 - a. A list of Supermarkets, Cafes and Restaurants close by will be published soon.
2. Half-board
 - a. Lunch and dinner will be served close to our main teaching space, while we ask you to self-organize your breakfast, also many B&Bs have breakfast included. The food offered will be vegetarian with vegan options and of course our chef is willing to accommodate any special dietary requirements as much as possible.
The menu & prices of meals will be published soon.

Accommodation:

For your accommodation we can offer two options, one very affordable and one more costly option. We can guarantee the availability of both options for a certain number of participants since we reserved several camping pads and rooms. In order to keep the costs of the programme low, we ask you to choose one of the accommodation options below and arrange the details of the booking by yourself. Their availability is based on " First Come, First Serve.

Once you confirm the accommodation of your choice, please inform Carolin at homecominginsong@gmail.com about the details of your arrangements!
